TEN CENTS PER WEEK

COOPER TRIAL IS DRAGGING SLOWLY TOWARD THE END

Little Hope of Relief for Jurymen Before Saturday Evening.

Arguments Today Are Long Drawn Out.

UNWRITTEN LAW IS INVOKED

Nashville, March 10.—Such long speeches as being made in the Cooper trial that it is not now believed that McCann will be able to start his concluding speech before Saturday. Judge Hart will take a day to prepare instructions. It is likely the case will not go to the jury before next week. Garner began his argument for the state today. He probably will not conclude in time to permit Washington to speak for the defense today.

Attorney Meeks' Argument.

The unwritten law was extended to cover editors who attack private or public men by Gen. Meeks of counsel for defense in the Cooper-Sharp trial for the murder of former United States Senator E. W. Carmack. The sensation was sprung during Gen. Meeks' speech to the jury. Previously he had expressly disclaimed the belief that any editorial attack justified the killing of the writer. But, when warmed up to his subject, with a burst of eloquence, he said:

"You talk of the liberty of the press. Why, gentlemen, so man lives who believes more firmly in the liberty of the press than I do. But when a man in an editorial position turns the liberty of the press into license and undertakes to defame and defile you and your family, what are you going to do? The prosecution will tell you, you have your recourse in the courts. Yes, and you get a judgment for $25,000 against a man not worth the price of a plug of tobacco. Is that satisfaction?"

"Oh, gentlemen I tell you that the streets of this city, have run red with blood of men who improperly used other men's names in the public prints."

Began in Low Tone.

Gen. Meeks devoted five hours to the speech. He painted the defendants as the finest types of southern aristocracy and breeding, declared no crime had been committed when Senator Carmack was shot to death, and closed with a dramatic appeal to the jury to "turn loose this gallant old soldier, Col. Cooper."

Gen. Meeks went on to trace the alleged "insults" which the defense claims Carmack heaped upon Col. Cooper in the debates with Patterson. "Col. Cooper told you that these insults were continued almost daily in the Tennessee. We did not see fit to introduce these assaults in print, but we did introduce some."

As a matter of fact the defense introduced only three editorials, one of which failed to mention Col. Cooper's name. The others were of a bantering type.

Gen. Meeks next discussed the mystery of the bullet which was found in Robie's bed, and said that mystery was not connected with the case. He claimed that Robie was shot, that no one doubted it. That Senator Carmack shot him, which was equally beyond dispute.

The attorney next went to the incident of the pistol overboard found in Senator Carmack's overcoat pocket when the coat was examined in court during the trial, and denounced the state's attorneys for insinuating that counsel for the defense "planted" the scabbard where it was found.

"We have proven," he went on, "that the meeting of the parties was purely and undoubtedly an accidental encounter. We hold that the guilt or innocence of these defendants must rest upon the state of mind they were in at the time the meeting took place." Counsel described the effect of the editorial "Across the Muddy Chasm" upon Col. Cooper the morning before the killing, and declared that when Craig went back to Carmack after his interview with Cooper he told Carmack that Cooper had said "This note goes."

Declaration of War.

"That note was to be the declaration of war and until that note was sent by Cooper and received by Carmack, Cooper understood that Carmack understood that there was to be no trouble, and that note was never sent. Now, we do not say that the editorials which Carmack wrote justified Col. Cooper in killing Carmack, but we do say that these continued insults were so unbearable and so offensive that they drove Col. Cooper into a frenzy."

Gov. Patterson's Message.

Gen. Meeks went exhaustively into the incident of the message from Gov. Patterson and why the governor

Twenty-Nine Million Dollar Fine Case Dropped By Government and Instructed Verdict of Not Guilty sent it, and argued that it was this message alone which brought the Coopers to Seventh avenue and led to the shooting.

Gen. Meeks next took up John Sharp's case and ridiculed the evidence offered by the state. He asked the jury if they were going to hang a man because he said Senator Carmack "should have been dead and in hell twenty years ago."

"The state declares," began the general, "that these defendants must have known that Senator Carmack would pass the point at which they met him at the time they met him. Well, why didn't they prove it? They had a chance, yet they never offered a witness on this subject. Senator Carmack stopped at the drug store, stopped to help Mrs. Williams on a car, stopped to talk to Jordan Stokes. Are these all conspirators? For, if he had not stopped, he would never have met the Coopers. The conspiracy case, gentlemen, is foolish. It is unreasonable and impossible."

Gen. Meeks argued that Col. Cooper, having decided not to press his demands upon Carmack, walked over to talk the matter over peacefully, that having failed to send the note which he knew and Carmack knew was to be the declaration of war, he had no idea of trouble.

"And he never even drew his gun when he saw his own son engaged in a revolver duel with his deadly enemy how do I know it? From the state's star witness, Mrs. Eastman, who never told anything favorable to the defense, and told everything she knew against the accused."

Gen. Meeks quoted at length from authorities as to the doctrine of self-defense and what constituted an overt act, and concluded with an appeal to the jury to study the evidence carefully.

Robin Cooper's Attitude.

"You saw the defendants on the stand, under the severe strain of cross-examination. You saw young Robie Cooper on the stand. I submit to you that he demonstrated that he is a gentleman of the old school. You saw how he tried every means he could to avoid trouble, and how he determined, if his father was to be embroiled with any one, he would be there to protect his sire."

Local Option Defeated.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 10.—The local option bill authorizing any borough, township or ward of any city to vote upon the question of the sale of liquor was defeated in the house last night.

Illinois Deadlock

Springfield, Ill., March 10.—Not a sign of breaking the deadlock in the Illinois senatorial contest appeared today when the ballot was taken. The result was Hopkins 76, Foss 17, Shurtlett 18, Mason 4, McKinley 1, Sherman 2, Stringer 38, Lowden 1.

STEAMERS COLLIDE IN FOG AND ONE RUNS AGROUND—MASSACHUSETTS ON BAR

Newport, R. I., March 10.—The steamer Florio Hall was sent to the bottom today as a result of the collision in a fog with freighter H. F. Bincock, bound from Boston to New York. The Hall belonged to the New York and Portland line. She carried a heavy cargo of general freight and a few passengers. She was washed below the water line. Captain Jewell put her at full speed ahead and grounded her on the beach at Gay Head. He sent a message asking assistance and the revenue cutter Gresham started to give aid. The fate of the Bincock is unknown, but it is believed to be slightly injured and still afloat.

The report that the Massachusetts, a freighter of the Merchants' line, was in the collision proved to be untrue. The Massachusetts struck the rocks in Tarpaulin cove, at Vineyard sound, and is beached. No one was hurt.

Judge Anderson Holds Ad- versely to Prosecution on Matter of Evidence at the Hearing.

Chicago, March 10.—The government abandoned its case against the Standard this morning after Judge Anderson dismissed all counts, referring to shipments of oil from Chapelle, Ill. Attorney Wilkerson asked if on the evidence presented thus far it is impossible to convict. The court said "yes."

"There is no use going on," said Wilkerson, "the government retracts." The defense immediately moved a verdict of acquittal. The court called the jury into the room to pass on this. Judge Anderson instructed the jury to return a verdict of "not guilty."

The verdict of not guilty was returned at the second trial in the case in which the Standard formerly was fined twenty-nine millions and probably all pending indictments against the company will be quashed. The result is a heavy blow to the government's anti-trust prosecutions. The case also is a heavy blow to the effectiveness of the Elkins law.

In instructing the jury to bring in an acquittal, the court said: "The government has failed to establish its case. The indictment charged the defendant with deviation from the standard of rates fixed by a common carrier under law. The judgment of this court is that there was no such fixed standard. The federal statute requires proof of intent and no such proof has been produced. The court does not believe the defendant knowingly committed any violation of the law. It was a fatal variance between the indictments and the evidence."

Indianapolis, March 10.—Judge Anderson was raised to the judgeship by the efforts of Senator Beveridge. Up to the present time Beveridge has been working to secure Anderson's elevation to the appellate bench on the next vacancy.

Packing Cases.

Chicago, Ill., March 10.—The announcement that the grand jury is to meet today to deliberate and no witnesses are to be examined, led to the belief that a report soon will be made in the packing cases. It is expected indictments will be returned against the packers for rebating.

Jeffries May Box

Priest Murdered in His Own Home at Newark, N. J., by 3 Unknown Men, Who Also Shoot Housekeeper

No Motive For Mysterious Tragedy is Ascertained—Father Ansione From Patterson, N. J.

Newark, N. J., March 10.—The Rev. Patterson Ansione, curate of St. Stanislaus Polish Catholic church, was assassinated in the parish rectory this morning by three men. His housekeeper, Miss Tonista, was also shot and will die. The priest died on the way to the hospital. The cause of the shooting is unknown. The men escaped.

The dead priest came here from Patterson. He was assistant at St. Stephens there. A year ago there was trouble among his parishioners, but it is declared Father Ansione was not a participant. Three men today raged his hell and asked to see Father Ansione. They were ushered into the front parlor. Later his housekeeper heard shots. She ran out in front of the house and was struck by a bullet.

Four Arrests.

Patterson, N. J., March 10.—Four arrests were made for the shooting. Ansione was shot three times through the body.

Taft Smile Wins

FIRST VICTORY IN

FIGHT FOR HOUSE

Washington, March 10.—President Taft is reported today to have scored the first victory of his administration. He is said to have persuaded the house insurgents not to allow the fight on the rules to interfere with the tariff legislation. He is said to have won with the good will of both factions and brought around an agreement between them. The rules probably will be revised during the winter session, not before the special session.

Tariff Bill.

Washington, March 10.—The tariff bill will be sent to the public printer Thursday. Among other things, it is expected to include free hides and coffee. Wool will remain as at present. A reduction in woolen goods and shoes and manufactured leather, and lumber and steel billets and plate glass is expected.

THIRD DISTRICT POLITICAL FIGHT IS BECOMING HOT

Contest on Between Friends and Opponents of Judge Tom Cook

Judge Berry Probably Will be the Referee.

REPUBLICANS BECOME ALERT

The refusal of W. A. Berry, Democratic state central committeeman, to grant a rehearing of the Calloway county chairmanship contest, will start the political pot to boiling in the Third judicial district, and there will be a plenty doing in the "dark and bloody ground," from now until the November election.

Mr. Berry's decision in seating Newt. Chrieman as chairman of the Calloway county committee will result in a deadlock when the executive committee of that district meets to devise ways and means of nominating a candidate for circuit judge to succeed Thomas P. Cook, and according to the contention of the winning side in Calloway county, Berry will again be called upon as referee to decide whether a primary or convention shall be called. One complication that will arise, however, is that only three of the four counties in the judicial district are located in the First congressional district, which is the limit to Berry's jurisdiction, Christian county being in the Second district. It is claimed that Berry will referee because the majority of the counties are in his district.

At present it is expected that the chairmen of Calloway and Christian counties will favor a convention to nominate candidates for judge and commonwealth's attorney while Triggs and Lyon chairmen, who are supporters of Judge Cook, will favor a primary.

At present states of all kinds are being made and broken in rapid succession and the opposition to Judge Cook has not yet agreed upon a ticket. The only announced candidate against Cook is Jack Hlanberry, of Hopkinsville, but it is not likely that he will be accepted as the leader of the law and order element, and that contingent in the Democratic party would likely vote for the Republican nominee, should either Cook or Hlanberry be nominated. In fact, it looks as if a Republican will be elected no matter whom the Democrats nominate, as the latter party is so divided and split up with factions that it will be impossible to harmonize the opposing factions.

Judge James Breathitt would undoubtedly be elected, should he make the race, as also would Judge Walter Downer, a prominent Republican lawyer of Hopkinsville, but either would make a sacrifice of personal interest to make the race.

It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens and sustains the system; is a promoter of health and longevity; makes the old young and keeps the young strong.

Leaking Books.

A box labeled "Books" addressed to one of the most straightforward and upright citizens of Kingston arrived at the express office several days ago. Notice was forwarded the person for whom the books were intended that they had arrived and were at the office. Several days elapsed and the owner failed to call for his express. Meanwhile the box had been moved about some and the books had evidently rubbed up against each other considerably, for the manager of the office noticed something about the package that caused him to call up the addressee over the phone and make the following statement: "Say, please come get your box; the books are leaking."—Kingston (N. DICKINSON TALKS OF APPOINTMENT

Can Bear Criticism of Individuals.

Taft Wanted South to Know It Was Not Alien to His Administration.

IS FROM PURE PATRIOTISM.

Chicago, March 10.—Secretary of War Jacob M. Dickinson appeared before the Iroquois club, a Democratic organization and made his first formal address since his appointment by President Taft.

Dickinson's speech before this body was objected to last week by former Mayor E. F. Dunne on the ground of "inconsistency." In his remarks the secretary explained his status as a Democrat and told the club members that his sentiments towards the south moved the president to appoint him. Dickinson said:

"When I accepted the compliment of a farewell dinner from my friends of the Iroquois club, I understood that it had no political significance, was in no sense an endorsement of my going into the cabinet of President Taft, and that it was merely an expression of personal good will. If I had anticipated that it would offend any member of the club, I would have taken by leave of my well-wishers in an informal way. When it was brought to my notice that objection had been made, I at once requested that it did not meet with the approval of those who had undertaken it. I shall not now let the objection of absences, however distinguished, mar my enjoyment of this generous testimonial of your friendship.

His Own Status.

"A publicity has been given to a protest made on political grounds. I feel that it will not be indelicate for me to refer to my own status. For nearly forty years, and much of that time with great activity I have been in the ranks of the Democratic party. I have never sought of it the reward of office, nor any other benefits, direct or indirect. Like many southern men, I have at times disapproved its policies; but on account of local conditions, did not actively oppose it. It is an abnormal condition when almost all those who represent the property and best citizenship of ten contiguous states act together politically. It is certain that all of them do not think alike on all such questions, and that differences of opinion would lead to opposite party affiliation in the southern states, as in the other states, but for a constant and powerful compacting force. It is a misfortune to the south, a misfortune to the whole country, that inexcusable conditions were such that differences on all other questions have been sub-ordinated to one question. When such action of those best qualified to represent their people extended throughout so long a period and so constantly, it would be like indicting a nation to affirm that it was either unwise or unpatriotic. Whether or not these conditions will operate in the future as they have in the past, I do not claim the wisdom to predict. All lovers of our country should unite in the hope that this may not be true—not so much on account of the political result, as on account of the conditions themselves, which are a constant menace to the south, and in reflex action, operate with unhappy effects upon the entire country.

South Likes Taft.

"On account of the causes to which I have referred, all of the southern states at the last election cast their electoral votes against President Taft, as they may have hitherto done with respect to other Republican presidential candidates. Therefore politically there was no bond between him and the southern states. He is now, after the battle has been fought, entering upon the duties of his office, as president of the entire country. He has been much in the south, and for years has counted very many southern men within the closest circle of friendship. His jurisdiction as judge extended over the states of Kentucky and Tennessee. Through a long period he was in close association with the people there, visited their homes intimately, was always an earnest student of everything affecting the general welfare of the country, and came to know more about southern people and the causes controlling their social and political action than any man or the north who has been called to high national office. Moved by no obligation to the south, but by strong friendship and sympathy for the southern people, and still more by a patriotic love for the entire country, whose welfare is necessarily bound up with that of the south, he determined to invite into his cabinet a southern man, thereby giving assurance to the southern people, that although the solid electoral vote was against him, he wanted them to feel that they were in close relations with his administration and would be in no sense alien to it.

Action Patriotic.

"If he had selected for this purpose a southern Republican, however well qualified to discharge the duties of the office, it would not have fulfilled the purpose he had in mind. If he had selected a Democrat who had voted for him, there would have been room for carping criticism to say, however unjustly, that the appointment ment had been tendered and accepted as a reward for such support; and besides, such an appointment might have lacked the ligament with the southern people which would exist between them and one who had left the party. I am confident that the great purpose of the president was to establish the relationship I have indicated. It would belittle the broad patriotism which inspired him, to assume that his purpose was to achieve political results. Having known me for a long time and intimately, and having conferred with southern men whose opinions he valued, he came to the conclusion that my qualifications and my relations to the southern people were such as to justify putting me in his cabinet.

"Having accepted the position, I shall bring to the discharge of the duties of the office my best efforts, and shall, of course, carry out his policies. I cannot conceive that any duty can arise in connection with that office that will be incompatible with any view I have hitherto entertained. Certainly if such an occasion should arise, I would not embarrass the president by holding a position, the duties of which I could not heartily discharge.

"That the purpose operating in his mind was broad, magnanimous and patriotic; no one can question. The wisdom both of the purpose and of his selection is to be tried by time. I have every assurance from letters and expressions in the public press, that his action in appointing me and my action in accepting, are approved by the south, and having the approval of the southern Democratic states, whose judgment was especially appealed to in this matter by the president, I can bear with equanimity any criticism that may come from individual Democrats elsewhere."

Rank Foolishness.

"When attacked by a cough or a cold, or when your throat is sore, it is rank foolishness to take any other medicine than Dr. King's New Discovery," says C. O. Eldridge, of Empire, Ga. "I have used New Discovery seven years and I know it is the best remedy on earth for coughs and colds, croup and all throat and lung troubles. My children are subject to croup, but New Discovery quickly cures every attack." Knows the world over as the King of throat and lung remedies. Sold under guarantee at all druggists. 50c and $1.00. The New Figure Everything fine or great upon which we have come to depend or to enjoy or admire, has been the result of initiative of some spirit more discerning and more daring than its fellows!

The REAL NEW FIGURE is the artistic result of an initiative protest against the deformities into which women have goaded themselves through the medium of badly fashioned, ill-fitting corsets!

But this New Figure (so called) is, in reality, as old as Nature! Indeed, it is NATURE, and at her best! Its lines are long, slender, graceful, lithel! It is the result of a true conception of Nature's idea of proportion, and it is a possibility FOR ALL WOMEN!

It is not required that you be as slender as a birch sapling to possess it. You may have even BOUFFANT CURVES which you bewail! These can be gently, but, nevertheless, persuasively, drawn within the symmetrical lines which Fashion, for once in league with Nature demand.

THE Gossard CORSETS

follow the lines of Nature at her best; and give to ALL women, whether slender or stout, short or tall, the artistic and natural narrow hip, the graceful line from waist to knee, unbroken by bulging flesh or sharp angularity; and the fine, sure poise of shoulders and bust.

We have a fine spring stock of these Corsets, including the newest models, and it will give us real pleasure to show them to you, and to have you meet the manufacturer's representative, who will fit you with the proper size, model and length, whether you purchase a corset now or not. She will be with us all this week, so don't miss this opportunity.

Daily Thought.

The best way to make sure of being glad is to make someone else glad.

The British government commission investigating the opium traffic finds that an occasional "pipe" is not harmful; it is the habit that hurts. Quite so.

We find it impossible to agree with Attorney Meeks, counsel for the Coopers, that it is justifiable to kill an editor for what he writes. If some one must be killed, we suggest the galley boy. We might in time become reconciled to that sacrifice; and, considered as a matter of pure revenge, his loss to the paper would be felt much more keenly.

Now, President Taft is occupied with the delicate necessity of proving to several millions of partisans, that he is not acting as a political referee, but trying to serve his country. Congressional insurgents, legislative brawlers in Illinois, and Alabama referees must settle their own difficulties.

Last we forget, we remind ourselves, that unless City Solicitor Campbell delivers copies of the ordinance, prohibiting the storage of files within the city limits, to the councilmen before Friday night, the measure may not be passed by the lower board Monday night. The ordinance is ready, and the act of delivery three days before the meeting is the only possible obstacle in the way of its speedy enactment.

RAILROAD CROSSING! WARNING! The decision of the federal judge in Missouri, that the two-cent passenger fare rate in Missouri is unconstitutional, is labeled sanction of Governor Hughes' position in vetoing the New York two-cent fare bill, on the ground that it was merely legislative submission to popular clamor, and not a well considered action. What effect the Missouri decision will have on the "two-cent rate in other states, we do not care to predict; but, considering the temper of the people, we would caution railroad men to be discreet in reactionary movements. Ill-advised legislative action, that cripples transportation lines, must necessarily injure the whole country. On the other hand, that the first hysteria of reform has been succeeded by calmness on the part of the public, does not mean that the public demand for improved service and just rates has abated one whit, and it would be dangerous to cross that purpose again. Mark Hanna's injunctions to "stand pat" and "let well enough alone" are applicable to many situations.

SOME STORIES AROUND TOWN

Down in the dry territory some peculiar methods are used to get a sip from the cup that cheers. At times the supply runs short, and so many tricks have been worked that it takes real ingenuity to solve a new method to get a drink from the happy memory of a quart. An out-bound train from Paducah several days ago was well filled with passengers when a man rushed into the smoking car. Quickly he exclaimed: "Has anybody got any whiskey? A woman has fainted in the next car."

Instantly a dozen flasks were produced, and the man quickly seized the nearest one and drained it. Surprise which tinged on anger filled the faces of his onlookers. "Thank you," said the man fervently. "It always makes me feel so queer to see a woman faint."

HUMOR AND WIT.

"Why was your wedding postponed?"

"My fiancé and his best man overate themselves—or something like that—at his bachelor dinner."—Cleveland Leader.

From a man's eyes, declares an observer, you can gather whether he is an honest fellow or a rogue. Can't subscribe to that, but, on the other hand, sometimes by looking at one eye you can tell that the man has run against something. You are, however, unable to say just what it was until he tells you. Then you don't believe him, and usually guess right. —New York Telegram.

Not a Dry Community.

"You were a delegate to the dry farming congress at Cheyenne, Colorado, I believe."

"Yes, sub."

"What did you do?"

"Well, sub, at times the farming became too dry, and at suitable intervals I went out and irrigated, the opportunities, I am happy to say, being abundant in Cheyenne, sub."

The Gateman's Sensation.

The man from Washington, D. C., was at the Bunker Hill monument. He registered, looked at the curiosities and when told that to go to the top, he would have to climb the stairs, dodged. Leaving, he chatted with the gateman, who described the views from the windows in great detail.

"How long have you been here?"

"Twenty-five years."

"What are the sensations experienced when you are at the top?"

"I don't know, I've never been to the top."—Boston Record.

Typographical Term.

Bold Faced Type.—Bobelman.

To the Highest Bidder.

A clergyman near Huddlesfield was much troubled with one of his congregations (an old man, accompanied by his grandson) always falling asleep during the sermon.

He thought he would cure him of his bad habit, and so, calling on the grandson one day, he said he would give him a penny if he would keep his grandfather awake all the time he was preaching.

The boy agreed, and all went well for a month; then one Sunday the minister was surprised to see the old man asleep as usual. He sent for the boy and asked him the reason why he did not keep his grandfather awake.

"Oh," said the boy, "you give me a penny to keep granddad awake, but granddad gives me two-pence to let him sleep."—The Bits.

ORDER OF SALE FOR THE CRAIG

Made by Judge Morrison of Owensboro.

Several Suits Consolidated in One Decided.—Hanks Interested.

Estate of J. E. WILHELM

In a decision given last night Special Judge W. Scott Morrison, of Owensboro, decided that the Hotel Craig property, Fifth and Jefferson streets, should be sold to satisfy the debt of the Globe Bank and Trust company for $5,611.35 and also three mortgages, amounting to $14,400. Should the hotel property not be sold for enough to pay the debt, the property in the rear of the hotel, 527 Jefferson street, is subject to sale. Appeals by the First National bank and the defendants were granted.

The suit has been an important one to members of the bar, and in it were consolidated the suits of the Globe Bank and Trust company against James E. Wilhelm et al; George W. Bains against James E. Wilhelm et al, and the First National bank against Mary B. Bains. Owning to Judge William Reed being a stockholder in the Globe Bank and Trust company he declined to preside and the governor appointed Judge Scott Morrison. The case was argued for two days and in order to complete it, the session was held last night, the decision being given about 8:30 o'clock.

The suit of the Globe Bank and Trust company was against J. E. Wilhelm, Ella B. Wilhelm, Amanda Wilhelm, William Wilhelm and James E. Wilhelm, Jr., and the court held that J. E. Wilhelm owned a life interest in the hotel property. His interest was fixed at 65 and 65-100 per cent of the entire valuation of the property. The entire case turned on the point that Mrs. Ella B. Wilhelm in her will had given the hotel property, including her husband's life estate, to her children and that her husband had consented to it in writing when the will was made and had accepted the provision of the will for him at her death; but the court decided that Mr. Wilhelm could not dispose of his life estate in this manner against the interest of creditors; because the hotel property had been acquired by Mrs. Wilhelm and his life estate had become vested in 1891 under the deed from her father, and before the new married women's act was passed in 1894. This point was fought bitterly by the attorneys in the case.

The enforcement of the mortgage liens in favor of W. J. Sladen for $9,400 and another mortgage lien in favor of John K. Hendrick and Felix G. Rudolph for $5,000, so far as the Globe Bank and Trust company and the First National bank sought to subject the property of Ella B. Wilhelm's devisees and Mary B. Bains' devisees for the payment of notes executed by their mother, Mrs. M. E. Beadies, to the banks by reason of their having received property from her, was dismissed. The case of G. W. Bains against James E. Wilhelm et al, was left open for further preparation.

The Hotel Craig is comparatively a new hotel. It is a frame building and is located on a valuable lot.

AN INCREASE IN THE SUBSCRIPTION RATES OF THE SUN.

Beginning at once, the rates for subscription to The Sun will be ten cents a week, and not forty cents a month as heretofore. This slight increase in price is due to the great increase that has been made in the past year in the price of print paper. The Sun is paying $9000 a year more for the same quantity of paper than it did only a year ago and it is an effort to help meet this additional expense that the price of the subscription is raised. Of course, any subscriber can continue to pay by the month as formerly, but some months they will have to pay fifty cents, while others it will be forty.

BISHOP WINS

LONG FIGHT FOR POSSESSION OF NEBRASKA CHURCH.

Excommunicated Priest Refused to Vacate Parish Property—Case in Court Ten Years.

Lincoln Neb., March 10.—By a decision rendered last evening by the Nebraska supreme court Bishop Bonacum, of the Catholic diocese of Lincoln, triumphs in his 10 years' fight with Father Murphy, a priest stationed at Seward, Neb., for the possession of St. Vincent's church.

The supreme court sustained the findings of the district court of Seward county ousting Father Murphy from St. Vincent's parish church property, sustaining, as far as the civil court has jurisdiction, the church contention that in the case of Father Murphy "the gates of Heaven are closed to him" by a decree of excommunication pronounced by the bishop.

The struggle between the bishop and the priest has been the most stubborn in church annals of Nebraska. It began when Father Murphy was pastor of the church at Tecumseh. Differences with the bishop arose and he was transferred to Seward parish.

The trouble did not cease and finally in 1901, Bonacum excommunicated him, supplanting him with a new priest. The parishioners were loyal to Murphy, the trustees refusing to surrender the church property to his successor.

Six times the case has been in the district court and three times remanded by the supreme court. Twice it has been before the church authorities at Rome. Murphy has a statewide reputation as an orator and a temperance advocate.

Facts For Sick Women

We know of no other medicine which has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women, or secured so many genuine testimonials, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Almost every woman you meet has either been benefited by it, or knows some one who has.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing over one million one hundred thousand letters from women seeking health, in which many openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved many women from surgical operations.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made exclusively from roots and herbs, and is perfectly harmless.

The reason why it is so successful is because it contains ingredients which act directly upon the female organism, restoring it to healthy and normal activity.

Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials such as the following prove the efficiency of this simple remedy.

Minneapolis, Minn.:—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system. I read so much of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other suffering women, I felt sure it would help me, and I must say it did help me wonderfully. Within three months I was a perfectly well woman."

"I want this letter made public to show the benefits to be derived from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. John G. Moldan, 2115 Second St. North, Minneapolis, Minn.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

Few Trials of Alleged Violators of Law at Bowling Green Explained.

Bowling Green, Ky., March 10.—The cases against the violators of the local option law are set for this afternoon in the police court. It is probable, however, that there will be few trials, as the majority of the defendants want to settle and quit business. One of these dealers, Charles Ackermann, entered a plea of guilty in three cases, and was fined $200 and costs, and the other cases against him were filed away, with leave to replead at any time. In the settlement of these cases and those of others who have already settled none of those not tried are dismissed, but are simply filed away, and if the defendants do not keep the law, the cases will be reinstated and they will be arrested and prosecuted under them. Mr. Ackermann has closed his doors and will move everything in the house out as soon as it can be done, and rent the premises for other and legitimate business. The judgment will not be entered until he has complied with his promise to do this.

Taft's Influence Thrown to Cannon

Hitchcock Lining Up New Members for Speaker.

House Insurgents, Calling at White House, Denied the President's Ear.

THEY WOULD DELAY REVISION

Washington, March 10.—If doubt existed as to the eventual selection of Joseph G. Cannon as speaker of the house of representatives in the next congress, it was dispelled when it was learned that his candidacy has the open and hearty support of President Taft. Mr. Taft is making no official announcement in this connection, but the attitude he has assumed is none the less positively established.

With a complete administration understanding, Mr. Hitchcock, the postmaster general, is co-operating openly with the friends of Speaker Cannon in handling the newly elected members as they come in. Admittedly he has no influence with the older members, except as he directly reflects the attitude of the president, but with the newly elected members there is no man in or out of public life who has such weight as the former chairman of the Republican national committee.

Insurgents Denied Taft's Ear.

Three of the house insurgents went to the white house and sought Mr. Taft's ear, in consequence of the general circulation of the fact that the president was ready to take the Cannon end of the house situation. They were Messrs. Gardner, of Massachusetts; Madison, of Kansas, and Nelson, of Wisconsin. Mr. Taft received them formally and told them it was impossible for him to talk with them and suggested that they make an engagement for a future day.

Representative Mann, of Illinois, Mr. Cannon's floor lieutenant and personal friend, was received while the crush of visitors was at its height, and was given forty minutes by the president Saturday. Representative Watson, who is devoting his entire attention to the interests of Mr. Cannon, was at the postoffice department three times to see Mr. Hitchcock, after being with the president nearly an hour on Saturday.

Taft's Position Defined.

The president in the attitude he has assumed takes the ground that it is for the country's good and for the successful and quick dispatch of public business. He finds that the insurgent element in the house has nothing to offer in lieu of the organization which they now assail. The president is not so much interested in the personal fortunes of Mr. Cannon—although personally friendly to him—as he is in the speedy, intelligent enactment of legislation which was promised to the country and which was promised by the platform of the party which elected him. The insurgents can offer nothing to him in the way of a house organization which means anything but chaos. They offer no guiding principle as the basis for their fight. They offer no man of the president's own party big enough and strong enough to take Mr. Cannon's place, whom the country would consider seriously for a moment or whom the country even overheard of.

Opposes Coalition With Democrats. The only proposition they have to offer the administration is the one involving a coalition with the Democrats of the house of representatives. The president can not imagine himself giving sanction, directly or indirectly, to any proposition which involves the turning over of a strong working majority of his party, with tried and tested leaders to an untried minority led by demagogues. The president is for Cannon and the continuance of the organization of this house as it has been. He is for it because he is for the success of his own administration and because he wants to see the country get what he promised, throughout the campaign which resulted in his election to the chief place in the nation. It should have if he could bring it about.

Representative Mann said: "If the president wishes a tariff bill passed at an early date and by a republican congress, he will certainly give no encouragement to the insurgents. If the Murdockes win out the way and means committee will be reorganized, and all of the work that committee has done during the past year will be for naught. More hearings will have to be held."

800 PRISONERS ARE SET FREE.

General Amnesty Act in Cuba Enacts Jail of the Island.

Havana, March 10.—In accordance with the provisions of the general amnesty bill recently passed by the legislature and signed by President Gomez, the courts of Havana today issued orders for the release of upward of 800 prisoners. These include Juan Maso Parra sentenced to four years for conspiracy against the provisional government, and the negro, Colonel Acea, reputed to be the most desperate criminal in Cuba, who was serving a cumulative sentence of almost eight years for homicide, robbery and frequent attempts to break jail.

No man can buy peace by selling principle.

20 Years With Heart Trouble

"Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy has cured me of heart disease of over 20 years' standing. I was so bad that I could not do my work, and could scarcely draw a full breath without fainting or smothering. The doctor told me he could do no more for me; then I commenced taking the Heart Remedy. I shall never forget that night. I slept better than I had before in months. I kept right on getting better, until I was perfectly well."

MRS. LAURA RUSSELL, Logan, Iowa.

When the heart action is weak, it fails to pump the blood through the lungs with sufficient rapidity. Then the lungs do not absorb the proper amount of oxygen, although they may be taking in a normal amount of air. The result is shortness of breath, smothering spells, difficult breathing, oppressed feeling in chest. Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy strengthens the heart nerves and muscles, and in this way increases the circulation.

ADMITS KILLING HIS SWEETHEART

Man Held After Peculiar Murder in Baltimore.

Says It Was Accident But Police Are Inclined to Think Crime Was Premeditated.

THIED TO BREAK ENGAGEMENT

Baltimore, Md., March 10.—Under searching questioning by the police John J. Mueller confessed that it was he who shot and killed his sweetheart, Miss Regina Reed, and that there was no truth in the story he told immediately after the shooting to the effect that he and Miss Reed were held up near Mount Washington, a suburb, by a highwayman, who, after securing Mueller's money, leaped and the necklace worn by Miss Reed. Mueller stated that in response to this demand Miss Reed slipped the highwayman's face and that then the fatal shot was fired. Following the investigation of the coroner, Mueller was held.

He made a signed statement in which he said that when the electric car upon which he and Miss Reed were riding reached the south of 11th Top avenue, near Mount Washington, Miss Reed, whose marriage to Mueller was set for April 14, and he, left the car, and, according to Mueller's statement, after they had walked a short distance, the girl preceding him, he thought he saw a man emerging from behind a tree and believing himself to be in danger, fired, but owing to the unsteadiness of his aim on account of fright, the bullet struck and killed Miss Reed. Mueller declares the shooting to have been entirely accidental.

His story, however, is not accepted by the police, whose theory is that the killing was premeditated. They believe Mueller wished to break off his engagement to Miss Reed and had not the courage to tell her so.

TO HIF JEFF DAVIS' HOME.

Efforts Being Made to Raise Funds to Purchase Birthplace.

Hopkinsville, Ky., March 10.—Options which are now held on that portion of the farm eleven miles from this city on which Jefferson Davis was born will expire on April 27, and a special effort is to be put forth from now until that time to raise sufficient funds to close these options and thus put on a solid basis the plans which have been put on foot for the past two years to convert the farm into a public park as a memorial to the Confederacy's president. The work which has been done since the movement was first started has brought in a considerable amount of money, but not enough to close the deal. Besides the anxiety to get the title to the land as soon as possible it is believed that should these options be allowed to expire, they could not be renewed at anything like the low price which has been named, and it therefore is a financial proposition.

S. A. Cunningham, editor of the Confederate Veteran is at the head of the work, and he has suggested that the Daughters of the Confederacy and the Sons of Veterans become interested and begin soliciting funds and thus help materially. A list of those who have contributed will be published within a short time and while this will not show up as well as had been hoped, it will show to what a wide extent the plan is favored and the interest that has already been aroused in it. The Lincoln centenary has given fresh impetus to the movement, and everyone unites in the opinion that it is only just that the birthplaces of both the illustrious men who guided the destinies of the opposing sections in the great strife should be thus transformed into permanent memorials to them.

The Earthquake Came. Apropos of the recent visit of the Duke of Connaught to Italy specially to convey condolences to the government on account of the disaster at Messina, a correspondent in Black and White writes: "When, with the Duchess, the duke was visiting Japan some years ago he remarked to his host at table, when the program for his visit was put before him: 'Well, I think you have planned everything connected with this country there is to see, but,' he added, laughing, 'there is one thing you can not put on your program, and that is an earthquake.' Hardly had he spoken, however, when the house began to tremble violently, and the servants standing at the door bowed together as the host said: 'Your highness, the honorable earthquake!'"—New York Tribune.

All of this can be avoided by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this liniment prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend makes the danger of child-birth less, and carries her safely through this critical period. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this remedy. ONE MILLION DOLLARS FOR A GOOD STOMACH.

This Offer Should Be a Warning to Every Man and Woman.

The newspapers and medical journals recently have had much to say relative to a famous millionaire's offer of a million dollars for a new stomach.

This great multi-millionaire was too busy to worry about the condition of his stomach. He allowed his dyspepsia to run from bad to worse until in the end it became incurable. His misfortune serves as a warning to others.

Everyone who suffers with dyspepsia for a few years will give everything he owns for a new stomach.

Dyspepsia is caused by an abnormal state of the gastric juices. There is one element missing. The absence of this destroys the function of the gastric fluids. They lose their power to digest food.

We are now able to supply the missing element—to restore to the gastric juices their digestive power, and to make the stomach strong and well.

We know that Hexall Dyspepsia Tablets will positively and permanently cure disordered stomachs, indigestion and dyspepsia.

We want you to try them and will return your money if you are not more than satisfied with the result.

Price 25 cents. Only at our store, or by mail. W. B. McPherson, Paducah.

NOTICE.

I urgently request all persons indebted to me to make settlement before the first day of May, 1909, as I will after that date bring suit on every unpaid note and account due me. Now your account is to each of you a small matter, while the whole is to me very important. I shall deal with all alike; if you don't pay you may know that you will be sued, whatever your name or color may be. I hate to do this, but I am forced to it in self-defense. If you have not the money and will borrow it to pay me in full by the first day of March, 1909, I will deduct 10 per cent from your account, thereby paying the interest myself. Is this not as fair as any sane man can ask?

HOPKINS MEN IN CONFERENCE

Talk of Democrats Electing Shurtleff Senator.

Governor Professes to Believe Hopkins Will Win and Does Not Think Democrats Will Go.

DENEEN IS NOT AFTER TOGA.

Springfield, Ill., March 10.—The followers of Senator Hopkins held a conference at the Hotel Silas, which was attended by about 45 members of the legislature. Senator Hopkins addressed the meeting. The talk of the Democrats going to Shurtleff and electing him was discussed at some length.

At the conclusion of the conference Senator Hopkins stated that if there was a break of the Democrats to Shurtleff enough Republicans who have been opposing him would come to him (Hopkins) and he would be elected.

He declared that his vote would amount to 90 or 95 and that this would be sufficient to elect. Senator Hopkins had a conference with Governor Deneen at the governor's office at which the senatorial situation was discussed.

Later Congressman Lorimer called on Governor Deneen. Governor Deneen reiterated the statement previously made that he would not accept the senatorship and professes to believe that Hopkins will win. He does not think that Sillett will go over to Shurtleff with a force of Chicago members of the house.

Senator Potter's bill which passed the senate and which provides that any city of three thousand inhabitants or more may organize as a township upon request of the city council, will be fought by an anti-saloon league, when it comes up in the house, and will undoubtedly be beaten, as they claim it is only a dodge for voting the city wet when it has been dry.

CASE AFTER CASE.

Plenty More Like This in Paducah.

Scores of Paducah people can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit can be had than such endorsement?

John Sanley, farmer, six miles south of Paducah, Ky., says: "My little boy, aged 12 years, was a sufferer from weak kidneys for a number of years. He did not have any control over the kidney secretions, and this caused us much annoyance, especially at night. He complained of his back paining him and last summer his health became very poor. We had a doctor from Louisville treat him, but one week he would be better and the next worse. We had often read of Doan's Kidney Pills and finally decided to give them a trial. We procured a supply at DuBois, Son & Co.'s drug store and at the end of the first week's use our son was much better. He was soon able to control the kidney secretions and a complete cure finally resulted."

The storm Monday night damaged property at Metropolis. The roof of the Quante flour mill was partially torn off, and the water damaged the machinery slightly. Some residences in the course of construction were wrecked, but the loss will not be serious. Many trees were uprooted.

Arbor Day Proclamation.

At the request of the president of the Forestry association and of the civic department of the Woman's club, I appoint Tuesday, March 23, local Arbor Day, requesting all property owners who have not already planted trees on their property, the grass plots on pavements in front of same, to do so. The park commissioners are requested to do all necessary planting on property under their supervision. Beautiful shade trees and shrubs can be had at very small cost. Pleasing results to all will follow a proper observance of this day.

I earnestly hope all citizens will manifest a public-spirited interest in making the day one of permanent benefit to our city. Respectfully,
JAMES P. SMITH, Mayor.

Fish is in Unusual Demand During Season of Lent in Paducah.

With the season of fasting on, many people have turned their attention to special diet for the observance of Lent. Naturally the fish dealers are in their glory for during the season of fasting there is a constant demand for the finny tribe. The fish business is an important one for Paducah, but few people know of the number of fishermen about the river near the city. Dealers declare that the demand for fish is unusually good this year, yet the price has not advanced in this meat as it has in many other articles of food.

The bulk of the fish sold by Paducah dealers, especially of the better variety, comes from the coast towns on the gulf and seaports. The cheaper grades are caught up the Ohio river, and also on the Mississippi. The rivers around Paducah furnish the channel cat, which is considered especially fine eating, and croppie. From the gulf come the red snapper, trout and black bass, while all the way from Florida the far-famed pompano is sent by express, as well as Spanish mackerel and red snapper. The rivers furnish the sun, perch and catfish. There are two kinds of catfish, the channel cat and the mud cat. The channel fish has a good meat and sells for 15 cents a pound while the second class has a ready demand among the negroes and the cheaper restaurants. Pompano is unusually hard to get and sells for 30 cents a pound, while Spanish mackerel is in good demand and sells for 20 cents. The red snapper is a prime favorite with many people and has a good demand at 15 cents. Sea perch sells at 10 cents, croppie at 15 cents and black bass and trout at 15 cents.

For the past three weeks the supply of fish received by the local dealers has been limited owing to the high water in the river and the local fishermen have been unable to control their nets. On the gulf, storms and high winds have interfered with successful fishing, and the markets would have been practically bare had it not been that the dealers fell back on the cold storage when the fresh supply ceased.

Oysters are in demand and the fish dealers sell a good quality, but the demand is uncertain, depending almost solely on the weather. During cold spells the supply of nearly every dealer is exhausted, but in warm weather the demand ceases. The average price for the oyster is 25 cents for three dozen with 50 cents a quart for the fancy seal-shipped oyster.
